ECIJA Mexico, among the best firms in Data Protection, IP and TMT by Leaders League

The Leaders League 2022 ranking has placed the law firm among the best in the Mexican market, recognizing it in 4 categories.

The international directory based in Paris, Leaders League, has published its new rankings for 2022's edition, in which ECIJA Mexico has been selected among the best firms in the country in the categories of Data Protection, Intellectual Property (Trademark Prosecution), Innovation, Technology & Telecoms, as well as Media & Entertainment.

In addition, 2 partners and 1 senior associate of the Firm have been recognized among the best in their areas of expertise: Joaquín Rodríguez in data protection, innovation, and technology; Ricardo Chacón in innovation, technology, and media / entertainment law; and finally, Georgina García in intellectual property.

These results add to ECIJA's other 17 awards in the directory, both in Spain and Ecuador. It is also worth mentioning that in April the firm was nominated among the pioneering firms in diversity by the international awards of Women in Business Law.

For Ricardo Chacón, managing partner of ECIJA Mexico: "Undoubtedly, being ranked along with internationally renowned firms is a great recognition of our work and confirms that we are on the right path to consolidate our position in the Mexican market as the leading firm in Digital Economy".
