ECIJA, winner of the Expansión award for Best Law Firm in Digital Economy

ECIJA accumulates eight awards since the Expansión Jurídico Awards were created eight years ago.

Last night, the annual awards ceremony of the Expansión Jurídico Awards for Excellence in the Practice of Business Law was held at the Duques de Pastrana complex in Madrid, which aims to recognize the excellence of the Spanish legal market in the practice of business law.

One hundred firms have participated with more than 300 nominations in the eighth edition of the awards, given each year by EXPANSIÓN.

The jury, composed of former Ministers of Justice, Ibex 35 board members, and managing partners of the main law firms in Spain, has recognized ECIJA as Firm of the Year in Digital Economy, for the excellence of its team, the innovation in products and services that the firm has offered throughout the year, the technical complexity of the matters dealt with and its work in advising on digital matters, taking into account the diversity and volume of disciplines addressed and the variety of sectors impacted

In the words of Hugo Écija: "The enormous effort and work that our professionals do every day has led us to win our eighth Expansión award. I don't have enough words of thanks for all of them." ECIJA remains committed to innovation, differentiation, and excellence in its services".

According to Alejandro Touriño, managing partner of ECIJA: "It is an honor to receive this important recognition for the Firm, during a very dynamic and positive year for ECIJA. We're extremely proud to have a team of professionals who work at the highest level every day, with the aim of improving and offering added value to our clients".
