ECIJA continues working on its growth strategy and has announced the opening of its new office in Pamplona, the seventh of the Firm in Spain, following the opening this year of the new offices in Zaragoza, Las Palmas de Gran Canaria and Santa Cruz de Tenerife

The new office is led by Arturo del Burgo and a team of 10 professionals with solid professional experience in Commercial, Public, Labor, Civil and Information Technology Law. Arturo, who has 18 years of professional experience in business law, has been partner of Cremades & Calvo Sotelo. Regardless of his activity as a lawyer, he was director of the legal magazine "La Tribuna del Derecho" for ten years, as well as editor of Editorial Laocoonte. He is a regular press contributor.

In the words of Hugo Écija, CEO of ECIJA, "the opening of a new office in Navarra takes place at a key moment for the Firm, which has significantly increased in this last year its number of professionals. At a national level, our short-term growth strategy includes growth in practice in the main areas that reinforce our position as a full-service firm".

According to Alejandro Touriño, managing partner of ECIJA "the opening of new offices in the city of Pamplona is a commitment of the Firm to position itself in the northern area, in order to be closer to our clients and their daily needs. It also involves the entry of new talent to the Firm, which helps us to strengthen the solidity of our legal response. "

Arturo del Burgo, indicates that "I join the ECIJA project with great enthusiasm and confidence in the growth and development of the Firm in Navarra and in the north of the country, offering our clients the innovative spirit, efficiency, and professionalism that characterizes the Firm".

To date, and following the latest integrations during 2018 of Expertis, Sigma, Romá Bohorques, Antas da Cunha, Comter, Azpitarte and DeuxTic, ECIJA has surpassed the number of 300 professionals and more than 60 partners in its offices in Spain, Portugal, USA, Chile, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Panama, Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua.
