ECIJA signs José Ayllón to lead the area of EU & Antitrust

José Ayllón joins ECIJA as Partner responsible for this practice area.

ECIJA, in a further step in its growth strategy, has incorporated José Ayllón to lead the practice area of EU & Antitrust, from which the Firm will offer advice to national and international clients on issues of defense of the Competition, procedures before European and Spanish courts and Authorities and all matters related to the competencies of regulated sectors.

José Ayllón has more than twenty years of experience specialized in this practice area, joining ECIJA after his career in the firms Howrey Martínez Lage and Dutilh.

In the words of Alejandro Touriño, Managing Partner at ECIJA Madrid, "the integration of José and his team to lead this area is a further step in our strategic commitment to growth. Their extensive experience will allow us to accompany our clients in EU & Antitrust issues with solvency". According to José Ayllón, "it is a great satisfaction for me to lead this practice area in one of the most recognized and innovative firms in the Spanish market."

We remain at your disposal for any question that may arise.
